ORDER OF DETENTION

I.

On March 13, 2024, Defendant, assisted by a Spanish language interpreter, made his initial appearance on the indictments filed in the above referenced cases. Carlos Juarez, a member of the indigent defense panel, was appointed to represent Defendant. The government was represented by Assistant United States Attorney Lyndsy Alsop. Defendant submitted on the recommendation of detention in the report prepared by Probation and Pretrial Services.

☐ On motion of the Government [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)] in a case allegedly involving a narcotics or controlled substance offense with maximum sentence of ten or more years.

☒ On motion by the Government or on the Court's own motion [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)] in a case allegedly involving a serious risk that the defendant will flee.

The Court concludes that the Government is not entitled to a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required and the safety of any person or the community [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2)].

II.

The Court finds that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure: ☒ the appearance of the defendant as required.

1 the danger to any person or the community. [18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)] The Court also 2 considered all the evidence adduced at the hearing, the arguments of counsel, the
3 report prepared by U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services, and its recommendation.
